

For citation: Matonin V.N. Return to the Motherland: Alexey Valerianovich Bragin-Bobrinsky notes and memoirs

URL: http://rectors.altstu.ru/ru/periodical/archiv/2022/s/articles/3_4.pdf

DOI: 10.25712/ASTU.2410-485X.2022.00.016

CNF — conference materials

UDK 94(47+57)(092)

BBK 63.3 (2)

RETURN TO THE MOTHERLAND:
ALEXEY VALERIANOVICH BRAGIN-BOBRINSKY NOTES AND MEMOIRS

V.N. Matonin¹

¹ Lomonosov Northern (Arctic) Federal University, Russian Federation, Arkhangelsk,

E-mail: matoninv@yandex.ru

Abstract. The publication presents information about the Bragin dynasty — Arkhangelsk military and judicial officials. Data are from the home archive of Vadim Nikolaevich Bragin (1935-2015), a resident of Arkhangelsk, and the memoirs of his nephew Alexei Valerianovich Bragin-Bobrinsky (1935-2015). The memoirs are about the Bragins-Bobrinskys life in exile (1918-1960). Alexey Valerianovich Bragin-Bobrinsky is a son of White officer Valerian Flegontovich Bragin and Countess Yulia Vladimirovna Bobrinskaya. The Bobrinsky family originates from A.G. Bobrinsky — an illegitimate son of Catherine II and her favorite G.G. Orlov.

Keywords: Bragins, Bragins-Bobrinsky, Countess Yulia Vladimirovna Bobrinskaya, Perekop, emigration, Civil War